AnnenMayKantereit

I just love the song because it is not like the others that are played in the radio for example. I also love the voice of the singer and the lyrics of the song. When I hear this song I can calm down and also listen to it when I go riding. But not only to this song. I also like "Barfuß am Klavier". When I hear songs like that I just feel free and can daydream. The songs bring me into another world.

It's a very groovy song. I don't really know how to describe it because it's a very special song and it also means a lot to me.

The band is called AnnenMayKantereit and the band name is made up of the surname of the band members. There are four band members and the band name does not include the surname of the fourth band member because he came to it when they have already decided about the band name. The singer is Henning May but he also plays the piano, the Ukulele and sometimes the guitar. The drums are played by Severin Kantereit, the guitar is played by Christopher Annen and the E-Bass by Malte Huck. The band started their carrier as street musicians 2011 in Köln.

The singer Henning May was born on February 13th, 1992 in Köln. His mother left the family when he was little and so his brother and his dad brought him up. When Henning was a teenager he fought with his dad very often but now they like each other again. Henning May wasn't at school very often and that made his dad very angry because he was teacher himself. So this is one reason why his father and Henning fought very often. Henning May made his GCE A-levels in 2011. After that he started singing as a street musician with his band.

“Walterli”

By

Fäascht Bänkler

This band comes from the Switzerland and there are 5 singers. Their names are Andreas Frei, Roman Wüthrich, Marco Graber, Michael Hutter und Roman Pizio.

They all play with traditional wind instruments. And the kind of music is a mix of Pop, Rock, House, Volksmusik and bat.

I like the song “Walterli” because it was the first song that occurred me. I like the text very well, because it means, that the best place is at home.

But I also like all the other songs of this band.
